People will sketch from a live model at the downtown craft festival. This event is organized by the Newtimes but sponsored by businesses in the form of prizes and volunteers. Work will be judged and awarded prizes in 3 categories, plus a wild card prizes available to every participant.

OFD's role:

1. Lend all easels - .marked with our advertising stickers
2. Supply 6 punch cards as prizes
3. Have a festival tent where we will hand out information and brochures on OFD
4. Dave Hicock may make a plug for us on Bridge Street.
5. Have a simultaneous group show at the tech garden from July 3- 5!

Volunteers We need a few more volunteers we can rely on for special events and the conference. We sent out an e-mail to that effect, now that we have a precise idea of what needs to be done where and when, it will be easier to inform volunteers. SEE the host or Board members for more info....
